TENDER TOURISTS.

THE LONG TRIP OF TWO LITTLE GIRLS

Traveling From Dallas, Texas, to Ironton, Ohio—They are Tagged and Ticked.

On the north-bound Santa Fe train yesterday afternoon were two very youthful travelers in the persons of Nona Hayes, aged 8, and her sister Lillie Hayes, aged 7.

Both were tiny specimens of humanity and were traveling from Dallas, Texas to Ironton, Ohio. The of the little girls died about a month ago in Dallas, and their father, not being able to properly care for them, decided to send them to their relatives, named O'Donnell, in Ironton.

Both wore tags about their necks, which gave their respective names, ages and destination. For ones so young they were very bright and loquacious, and were very kindly treated by the passengers on the train. There is no doubt that they will reach their destination in safety.

A SPLENDID BOND.

Secretary Lowe Qualifies to the Amount of $100,000.

Judge Lowe yesterday sent to Washington his bond as secretary of the territory. It is considered the best bond ever offered in the territory.
The secretary is only required to give a $50,000 bond, but Judge Lowe qualified for more than $100,000. Judge Lowe is a solid, practical business man and this is but a sample of how he does business.

HOW TO FILE BY MAIL.

Information for Homesteaders That Will Save Trouble.

Homesteaders wishing to file by mail must first get a line number and attach same to the regular application, along with a distance or disability affidavit. The application can then be mailed, and when the number is reached, will be passed on by the office.
The land officers have been compelled to make this ruling, so that those filing by mail might have no advantage over those standing in line.

ACCIDENT TO JUDGE GREEN.

He Falls From a Chair and Sustains Painful Injuries.

Judge Green met with a painful accident yesterday morning in the district court room. He was standing on a chair reaching for a book on a shelf, when the chair turned, causing the judge to lose his balance, throwing him violently to the floor. Fortunately no ribs were broken, but it is feared he has sustained internal injuries. District court was adjourned yesterday on account of the mishap.

Coal at the New Towns.

Some years ago a company in which Owens was interested secured a mineral lease on all the lands of the eastern one-third of the Cherokee strip.
Several thousand dollars were spent in drilling holes without results except near Willow Springs where zinc ore was taken out. A shaft was sunk and mining was carried on long enough to convince the company that the ore was not there in paying quantities.
Rich deposits of iron ore were found, but that was valueless without good coal near, and although the country east of Perry was thoroughly prospected, no coal was discovered.

Lincoln's Cotton Crop.

Sac and Fox Warrior: When you talk about your cotton don't forget that Lincoln county is going to be one of the most productive sections for this useful and valuable crop. Our cotton raisers are now engaged in the first picking and many of them claim they will realize a bale to the acre, which would be a credit to the old Georgia plantations, as for quality.
The enthusiasm of some old plantation darlings over specimens brought to town this week is sufficient testimony to its worth.

Another Fizzle.

The board of trade meeting fizzled again last night. Only the secretary and five members were present. President Spengel is in Chicago. No action was taken toward selecting delegates to the Purcell stockholder convention.
Citizens should take an interest in the board of trade and attend the regular weekly meetings.

Ovation to Mrs. Brooke.

Mrs. Brooke, wife of Bishop Brooke, and four children arrived in the city yesterday afternoon to reside hereafter. Last evening Mrs. Brooke was given a reception by the ladies of the Episcopal church, and a large number shook the hand of the bishop and his wife. Mrs. Brooke and children are heartily welcomed to Guthrie.

A Chip on the Old Block.

Lee Wisley, son of Colonel Joe, has been made president and attorney for the Perry abstract company. He is a chip off the old block, a young lawyer of ability and is doing a good business.
His friends are urging him for city attorney.

P. S. Hoffman of Chandler is in the city.

H. C. Smith is in the city from Glasgow, Ky.

Mayor McElhinney has returned from Perry.

R. L. Collins was here yesterday from Enid.

F. L. Tlake was a visitor from Topeka yesterday.

The attendance in the public schools is increasing.

Murray & Brown, jewelers, have dissolved partnership.

E. L. Conklin is here from the Sac and Fox agency.

Ducks are said to be plentiful along the country streams.

Rev. Winifred left last evening for Missouri on a business trip.

Mrs. McNally of Kansas City is spending a few days in the city.

E. S. Russell, G. A. Griffin and G. H.
Faller are here from St. Louis.

Jasper Sipes of Oklahoma City took supper in the city last evening.

Two earloads of express and baggage were sent to Perry yesterday.

W. R. Lazenby of Gainesville, Tex., is sejourning in the city.

Charles Howard, deputy revenue collector, was up from El Reno yesterday.

William DeWolf of Pittsburg, Pa., is viewing the sights of the Oklahoma metropolis.

H. S. Hulst of Arkansas City was in the city last evening viewing the city by electric light.

Articles of incorporation were filed in the secretary's office for the Avery Planter company.

Governor Renfrow and Edgar Jones enjoyed a hunt in the country yesterday afternoon.

Governor Renfrow's proclamation making Perry a city of the first class will be issued to-day.

Many new soup houses and restaurants are springing up in Guthrie since the opening of the strip.

Local nimmers are scouring their fleas for preparation to beginning the fall shooting campaign.

A Harrison avenue dress maker is preparing two wedding outfits for fair Guthrie belles.

Miss Jennie Watkins arrived from Chicago yesterday to spend the winter months with her father, J. J. Watkins.

George Taylor sold out his interest in Perry last evening to his contestant for $500 and came home with a roll.

Edgar Jones is busy receiving the congratulations of his host of friends on his appointment as territorial librarian.

Eleven new shares were issued at the last meeting of the Guthrie Building and Loan association and money sold at 75 per cent.

The Daily Bulletin is the latest newspaper venture in Perry. It is a four column one-page sheet, but bids fair to prosper.

The remains of W. Simon were laid to rest Tuesday in Summit View cemetery. The burial was according to the Jewish ritual.

"Two Fingers Mike," a well-known character from Dallas, Texas, was in the city yesterday en route to Perry to join the tough element.

J. J. Ford was taken from the land office line at Enid yesterday and conveyed to Wichita to answer to the charge of horse stealing.

A couple of belligerent cowboys entertained a crowd at the horse market yesterday by a lively passage at arms.
Two black eyes and a broken finger about sum up the results.

The United States grand jury is still hard at work grinding out bills.
Several big indictments, it is intimated, have been returned against certain officials. Territorial cases will be taken up next Monday.

Miss Lottie M. Hitecheek was appointed deputy county treasurer yesterday under Captain Stiles. Miss Hitecheek is a bright, affable young lady and will discharge her duties in a practical manner. She will begin work Monday.

Blackwell was represented in the city yesterday by Frank Potts, Jr., and Frank Potts, Sr. They were accompanied by E. L. Peckham and J.
R. Lynn, who are also interested in Blackwell, which town they say is prospering.

The tobacco growers of the Connecticut valley have been trying rain-making experiments and have had the heavens bombarded with the hope of producing rain to save their tobacco crop. Their efforts were fruitless and the crop will be an entire failure.

Hay is still retailing in the Cherokee strip for a cent a pound, and there is no probability of a decrease in price, for there is a shortage of hay on every side. Oklahoma farmers ought to save all their fodder crops for their stock and sell their hay for market.

The well filled granaries, the ricks of hay, fields of corn and kafir corn give Oklahoma a prosperous look.
While the stringency in the money market may prevent the development that would otherwise have taken place, it cannot bring the Oklahoma farmer to want.

Cal Orner and R. M. Dickerson came down from Perry yesterday to interview Governor Renfrow regarding the Perry proclamation and incidentally to picture the beauties of the new town to amazed crowds. Orner is a candidate for police judge of Perry and Dickerson is running like a greyhound for clerk.

Thomas G. Asplund of Los Angeles, tion.

* District court was not in session yesterday, on account of the accident to Judge Green.

H. S. Beeler came down from Perry yesterday. Beeler claims to be an aeronaut and carries with him a balloon. He went to Orlando about three weeks ago to sail into the strip, but according to his story, abandoned the airship on account of an ill wind.

Dr. Charles Smith was able to come down town yesterday, after being confined to his home for several days.
While at Orlando on the 15th inst., Dr. Smith officiated as peace-maker between a couple of angry homesteaders. During the melee one of the combatants managed to get the
